Nashville City Cemetary

COME SEE THE BEAUTY OF HISTORY TODAY

General Information

The Nashville City Cemetary was established in 1822 and has grown to a total size of 28 acres. We invite you to come experience history in a serene surrounding of glamorous landscapes including our arboretum, which holds 30 species of trees and 10 species of shrubs. Take a nice stroll through our grounds and let your mind roam with the thoughts and stories of historical treasures of our nation. The Civil War, Restoration, The Industrial Age, Civil Rights conflicts and triumphs are just some of the eras you'll be taken to as you view monuments and information about those who lived through these times.

Historical Figures

Nashville City Cemetary is the burial place for many historic and notable figures. James K. Polk who is a former U.S. President, Captain Alexander Ewing - an officer in the Revolutionary War, and Major Howell Tatum - an officer in the War of the Revolution are just some of the many names you'll find when touring the grounds.
